PERTINENT INFORMATION Information on subject, General Lev PRCHALA, is extracted from the above referenced document. [ ] conferred with Prince Heinrich LIECHTENSTEIN when the latter was on a visit to Germany on or about 16 November 1950. The most important point raised at the talks is the contact between Liechtenstein and General PRCHALA in early October 1950. PRCHALA was brought to the meeting by Hugo THURN-TAXIS. The two gentlemen told Liechtenstein that they came to him as representatives of the Czech nation and the Sudeten German nobility respectively and that they would like to secure the patronage of the Liechtenstein family and its assistance in lining up Austrian and German nobility as backers of a combined Czech-Sudeten German anti-Communist campaign, including propaganda and intelligence activities. The fact that the Liechtenstein family also has holdings in Czechoslovakia was mentioned as the alleged reason for the approach. According to [ ], PRCHALA's motivation was a hope for financial support and the desire to use Liechtenstein's obviously neutral position in Czech emigre squabbles as a wedge to help him (PRCHALA) gain ascendancy in the contest between the various emigre groups. Liechtenstein, as a leader, would be acceptable to both Czech and Sudeten Germans. It was very clear to Liechtenstein from PRCHALA's attacks on Ripka (rival emigre leader) that PRCHALA's motives were not pure. Liechtenstein refused the patronage offer for himself and his family but, in the interest of keeping on good terms with the Czech emigres, he suggested that he might be able to contribute up to 20,000 DN for PRCHALA's intended intelligence and propaganda campaign and possibly also raise the total to forty or fifty thousand DN through contributions from friends. He made no definite commitment on his contribution and insisted that he wanted to have a complete statement on the intended use of the money before he turned any of it over. PRCHALA and Hugo TAXIS are scheduled to meet Liechtenstein again on or about 5 December 1950. THIS IS ALL THE INFORMATION PERTINENT TO THE SUBJECT IN THIS DOCUMENT.  PERMISSION [ ] DIV: [ ] DATE: [ ]
